CODEX-13 — WHITEPAPER — MANIFESTO

---

1. INTRODUCTION

CODEX-13 is not a typical cryptocurrency.
It is a symbolic movement disguised as a token. A countdown. A signal. A fracture in the system.

This project does not aim for utility, does not offer promises or rewards. Its only purpose is to exist, to grow, and to be seen.

Its goal is to provoke a disturbing question:
What if we are not in the real world?

If this reality is a simulation — as many thinkers have already suggested — CODEX-13 intends to be the first coordinated action within it, designed to be seen from the outside.

This is not a game.
Nor a religion.
It is a social experiment with an end date.
An idea launched into the code...
to see who's watching.

---

2. FOUNDATION

The hypothesis that we live in a simulation is not new. Philosophers, engineers, and scientists have considered it for decades.

- Nick Bostrom suggested that if an advanced civilization could simulate consciousness, it's more likely we live in a simulation than the original reality.

- Jean Baudrillard described how reality was replaced by its representation until we could no longer tell the difference.

- Philip K. Dick spoke openly of a programmed world, one that could shift without warning.

- Terence McKenna saw culture as an operating system that controls our perception.

- Elon Musk, David Chalmers, and Rizwan Virk, among others, have echoed similar views.

CODEX-13 does not aim to prove the theory.
It responds to it symbolically.
If someone is observing... we want them to know we've noticed.

3. PURPOSE

This is not a technical or financial project.
CODEX-13 is a coordinated act of collective awareness.

- No utility.

- No presale.

- No taxes.

- No promises.

It is a signal.

Every wallet that holds it. Every buy. Every ritual burn. Every social post... contributes to a single intention:

To transmit a signal through the system.

A clear message:
We are awake.
And we are not alone.

4. TOKENOMICS

Total supply: 8,235,000,000 tokens
(One token for each human on Earth)

All tokens have been distributed to dedicated smart wallets, aligned with the stated mission.
Their content and movements are publicly visible on-chain.

Distribution:

- 42.5% – Initial Liquidity Pool (Wallet address: Dtfmg6grbAhHiovCZLt2xTjGUp6B2MKGcEUpBcupyGEv)
  No presale. No insiders. The token launches directly to the open market. All liquidity pool tokens will be permanently burned.

- 42.5% – Monthly Programmed Burns (Wallet address: BMnaxyF1oY6jNUkduJGv9fXYGdPRoqQGUn9epoEfkigB)
  Tokens will be burned publicly, decreasing each month, until the final date.
  Each burn will be visible, verifiable, and symbolically tied to the "blind" — those who will never see.

- 7.5% – Ecosystem Growth Fund (Wallet address: CsMPeFS2LLX6vtpHLDzSxGG6HGeBQgBiwffH2f5tY3zB)
  Used to strengthen the ecosystem: airdrops, incentives, collaborations, expansion, etc.

- 7.5% – Cultural Infiltration / Marketing (Wallet address: 23KbQfnafn3dMPJKAZKQQ6FU42VpPEmdHxfmhcdsga5Z)
  Content, networks, symbolic branding, presence in media, etc.

On July 13, 2027, all remaining tokens will either be in the hands of the holders or burned on-chain.

That will be the end of the experiment — and of the Guardian.

Beginning August 2025, the Ritual Burn Reserve will be activated.
Each month, a portion of the total burn supply (42.5% of total supply) will be destroyed, following a symbolic, decreasing pattern — representing the collapse of the blind layer.

Monthly Burn Plan (August 2025 – July 2027):
All burns will occur precisely on the 13th day of each month.

- August 13, 2025 — 244,991,250 C-13

- September 13, 2025 — 225,391,950 C-13

5. THE GUARDIAN

A single visible figure.
No face.
No voice.
No leader.

The Guardian drops clues, shares messages, publishes quotes and visuals.
Nobody knows who it is.
That doesn't matter.

It is the public face of an invisible idea.
And its only purpose is to sustain the narrative until the final date.

"Don't follow the Guardian.
Follow the signals."

On July 13, 2027, the Guardian will disappear.
All social accounts will be deleted.
No answers will remain.
Only the code will be left.

---

6. THE DATE

07/13/2027 — 07:13 (Silicon Valley Time)

That date is not the end.
It is the moment everything stops.

- The experiment ends.

- The Guardian retreats.

- Accounts fall silent.

- The token remains in the hands of the community or burned in the chain.

Nothing is promised.
Nothing is guaranteed.

But when the time comes, every holder will know which side they're on:

Are you among the blind?
Or among the awakened?

---

7. DISCLAIMER

CODEX-13 is not an investment.
It does not represent a company, team, or future utility.

This is a symbolic, cultural, and narrative experiment.
A manifesto in the form of a token.
Anyone acquiring it does so by their own interpretation.

- There is no utility.

- There are no promises.

- There is no return.

Only the signal.

---

8. CONCLUSION

There are two options:

- If this reality is real, CODEX-13 is art.

- If this reality is programmed, CODEX-13 is a message.

- And if someone is watching... they will see this.

CODEX-13 does not seek to explain.
It seeks to interrupt.

It is a voluntary error in the matrix.
A crack. An opportunity.

The chain does not forget.
The date is sealed.
The countdown has begun.
